CITY AND COUNTY WATER RESILIENCE PLANS

Earlier this year, Supervisor Sheila Kuehl introduced a motion stating the County's goal for water sustainability should be no net increase in total water consumption. The County, along with the City of Los Angeles and other cities, is starting work on a water resilience action plan. Hear about a potential water conservation ordinance and other methods to reduce water use and imports and build up the region's ability to withstand droughts and other water emergencies. And discuss what these programs could mean to you.

Special Guests: Leslie Freidman-Johnson, CNRG; Liz Crosson, Office of Mayor Eric Garcetti

PROPOSED CITY ENERGY & WATER EFFICIENCY REQUIREMENTS

The City recently completed a draft ordinance that will require most commercial and multi-family buildings to increase their water and energy efficiency. If approved, the ordinance will apply to all non-governmental buildings (excluding structures used in TV and film production and single family homes) that are greater than 20,000 square feet. Come to learn about the reporting responsibilities and potential retrofit requirements that a property owner may incur.

Special Guest: Hilary Firestone, Office of Mayor Eric Garcetti

2ND / HOPE STREET STATION UPDATE

Join us to learn about and discuss the potential changes for the bridge to the Regional Connector Station on Bunker Hill. And hear about how to get involved in the naming process for the new station.

Special Guests: Matthew Marquez and Jeanmarie Hance, Metro
